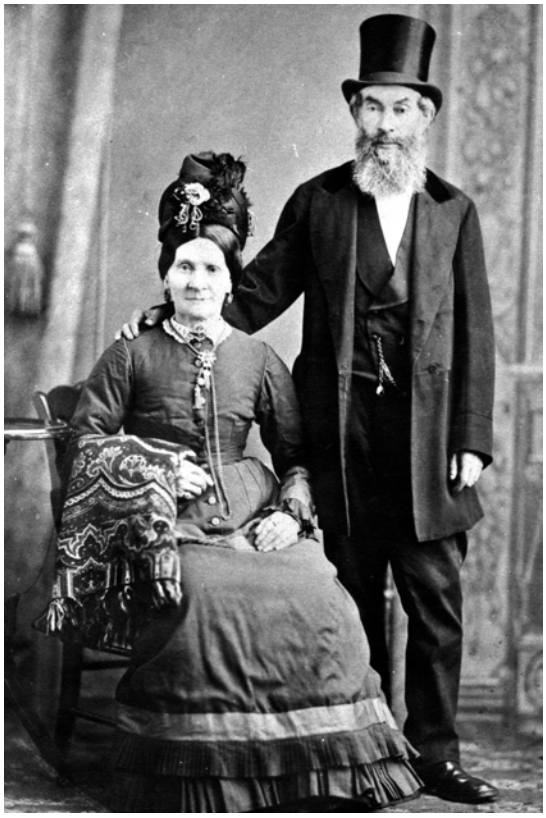
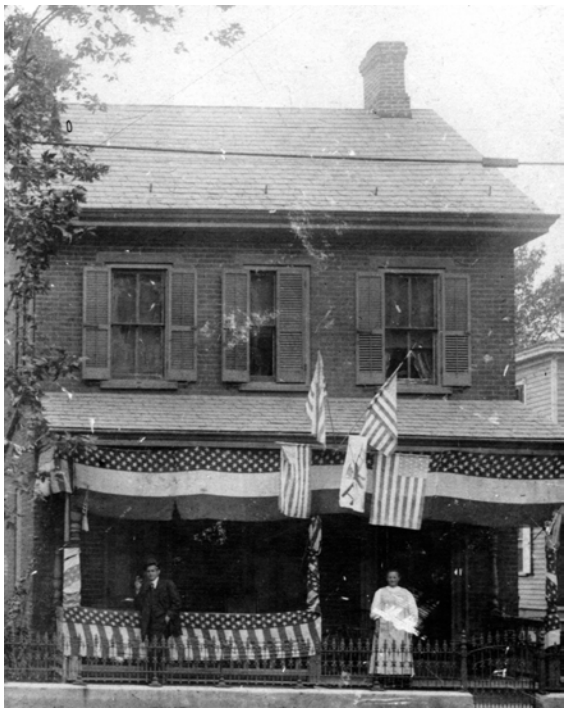
THE LEVY FAMILY



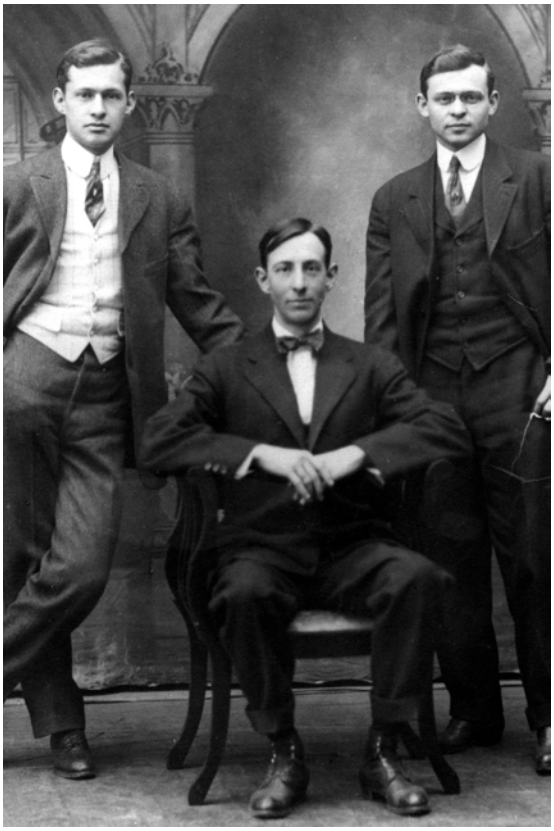
<Louis Garchmarski, Gar's paternal great grandfather.

Louis Levy, selling picture frames, his paternal grandfather, below.

Louis Levy in his heyday.



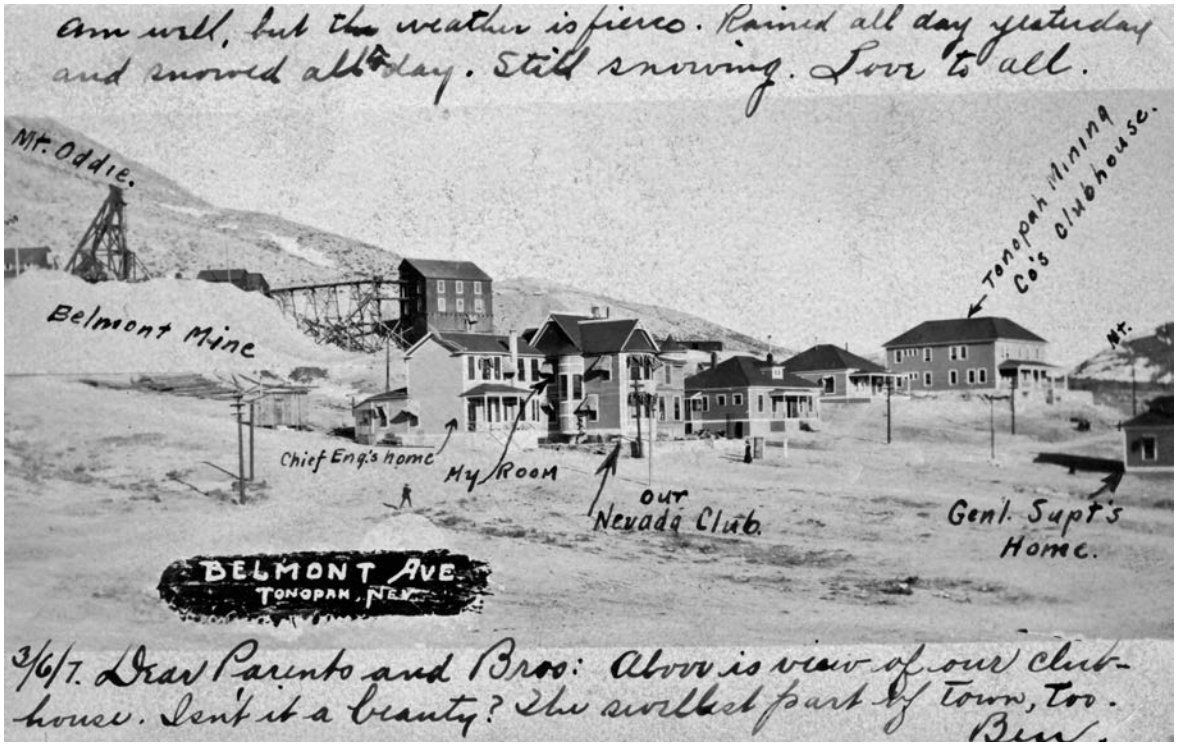
Louis Levy's store in Bethlehem, above left: the house on Wyandotte St. where he boarded, and which he eventually bought, above right:

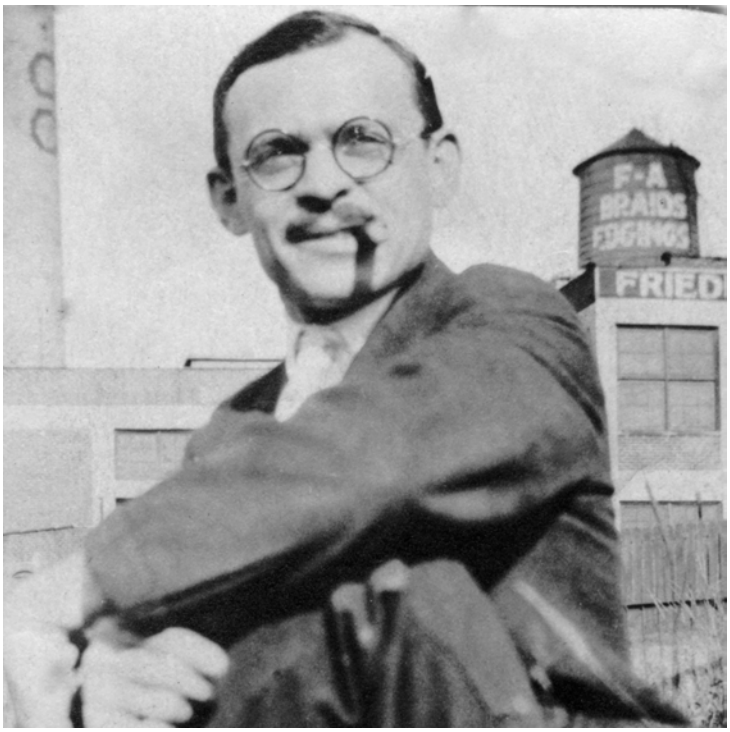


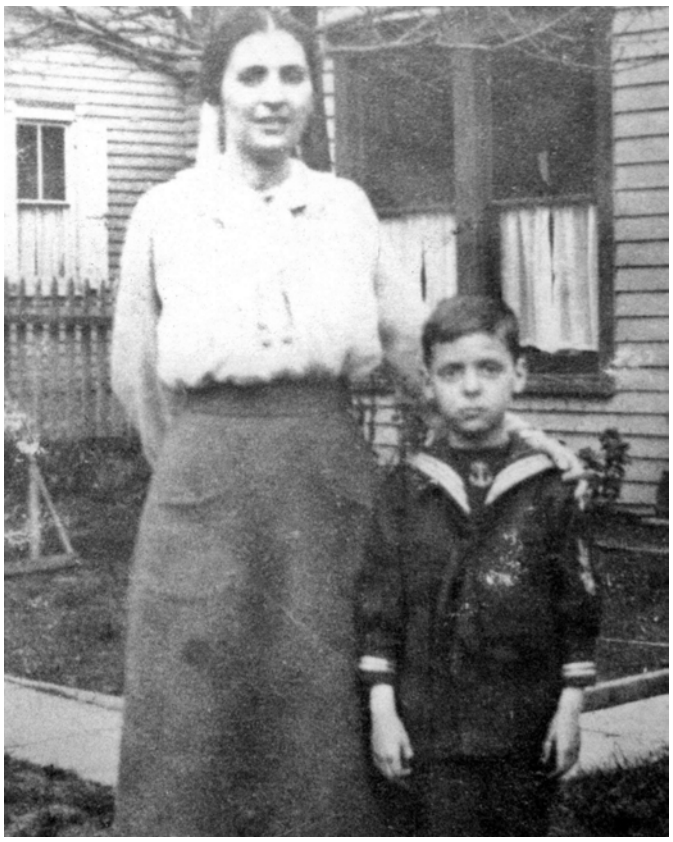
<Benjamin Levy, Gar's father, right; Harry (Levy) Lewis, left.

Lillian Potas(c)h, Nanny, at 17

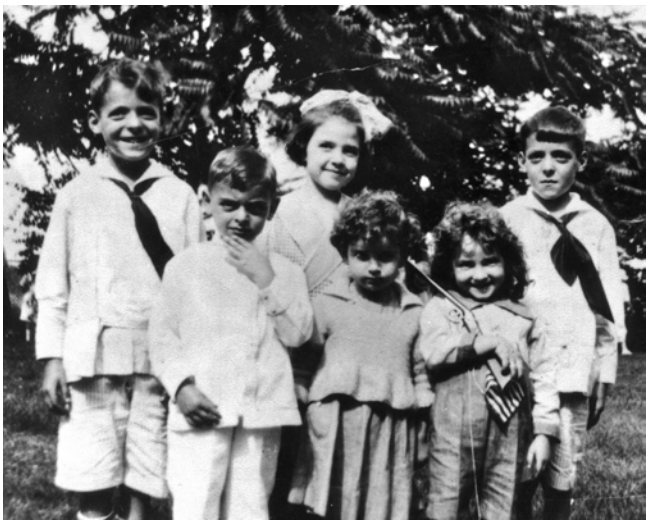
A postcard from Tonopah in 1907, from Ben to his father Louis, with the sights marked: bottom, Ben in Tonopah...







Nanny with Gar, 5, in 1918: typical expression. With neighborhood children, below: Charles (left), Gar right; Abner in the middle. The twins are 8...



The twins with their parents in 1925, aged 12: Gar is seated on the stairs...>

The accounting department at Midvale Steel Co., 1926: Ben is in the middle, back row.

Charles, Aunt Betsy, and Gar, 1935

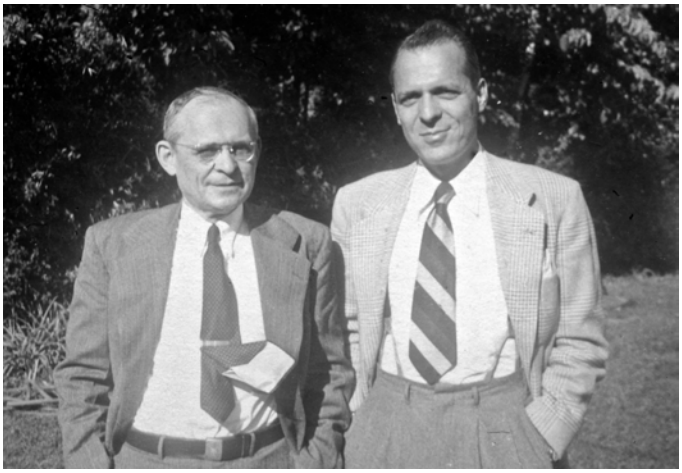
Nanny, Gar, and Ben in the back yard in Great Neck, Gar 30, 1944.

Nanny and Ben, Mom and Me, 1944, Great Neck

Poppy and Me, 1948: in the cowboy outfit I feared would fall off...

< Harry (Levy) Lewis in his store. He died in November, 1961.

Ben and Gar, Great Neck, 1948



Poppy, Nanny and Linda, about 1952, Poppy showing his age.

Gar with his parents in 1954: Poppy had two years left to live.