THE WILDS FAMILY, Levy-Wilds, and Lee

<Charlotte Dobler, Alma's Mother

The young Emma (Alma) in Gibson Girl mode>

<Daddy Wilds

With his Lincoln

<Mom and Bud, 8 and 4.

A High School girl, early 1930s

By the mid 1930s, a coming model...

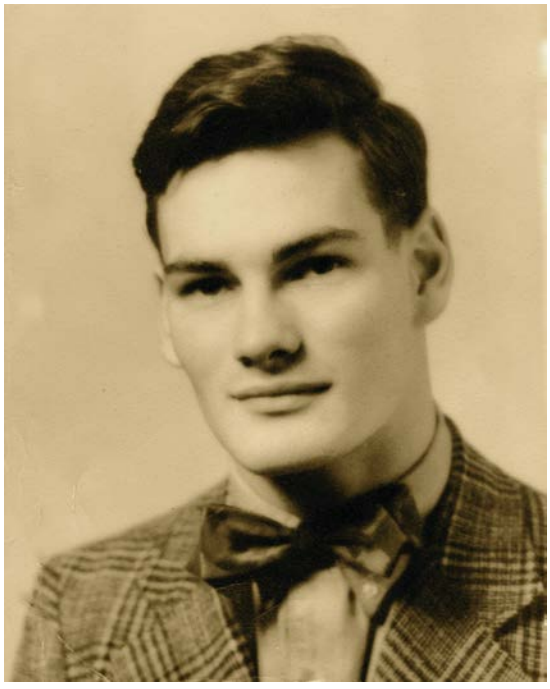
McClelland Barclay's portrait, late 1930s.

The Model's Miss America, 1939: Russell Patterson, Walter Thornton, and Alex Raymond, left to right...

Dream Girl, 1940

In The Beaux Arts Apartment...>

138 Baker Hill Road, Great Neck...



<Bud, about 18.

Winning a milk-drinking contest in college.>

Five Pints (Of Milk) In 15 Minutes

Leonard Wilde Jr., left, University of Alabama freshman from New York City, claims the "sweet milk drinking championship of the campus" after a spirited contest with the only other contestant and runner-up, Neal Skinner, right, Birmingham. Mr. Skinner originated the idea and gave his competitor a hard mark to shoot at by downing 10 half-pints— two-and-one-half quarts—in 15 minutes. In the following 17 minutes Mr. Wilde drank 12 half-pints. While interested classmates looked on Mr. Wilde exclaimed, "If I weren't so full I could really go for a chocolate milk shake right now."

MILK DRINKING CHAMP

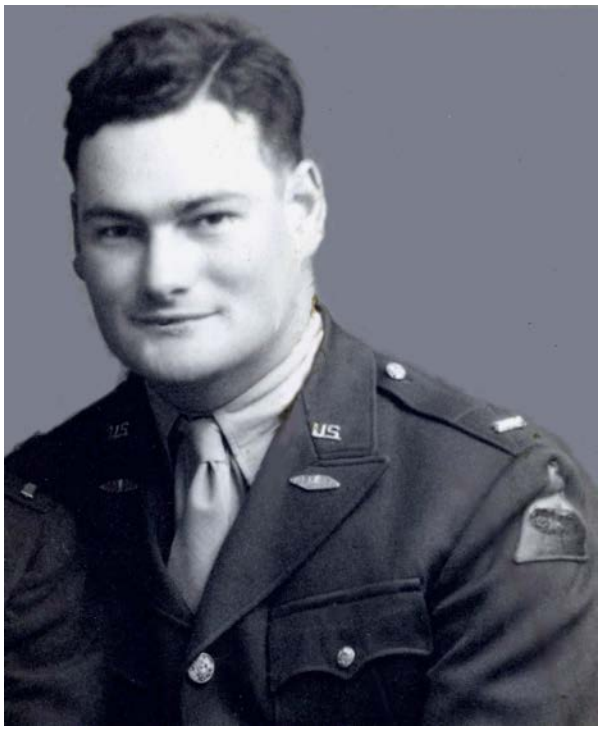
'Bama Freshman Downs 12 One-Pints In 17 Minutes

UNIVERSITY, Ala. — Leonard Wilde, Jr., University of Alabama freshman from New York, N. Y., claims the "sweet milk drinking championship of the campus" after a spirited contest with the only other contestant and runner-up, Neal Skinner, Birmingham.

Skinner originated the idea and gave his competitor a hard mark to shoot at by downing 10 half-pints—two-and-one-half quarts—in 15 minutes. In the following 17 minutes Wilde drank 12 half-pints.

While interested classmates looked on, Wilde exclaimed, "If I weren't so full I could deally go for a chocolate milk shake right now."

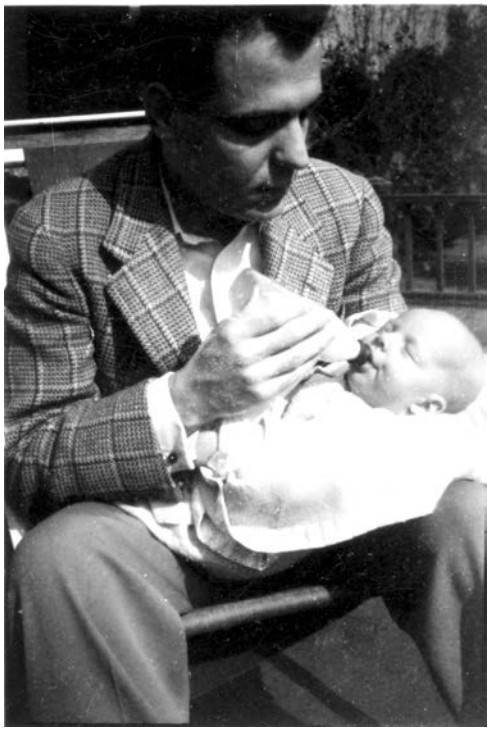
Bud in the Army, 1942.



Receiving the Distinguished Service Cross, 1945, below.

At a friend's house, before marriage

Gar, posed with me as a baby, 1942

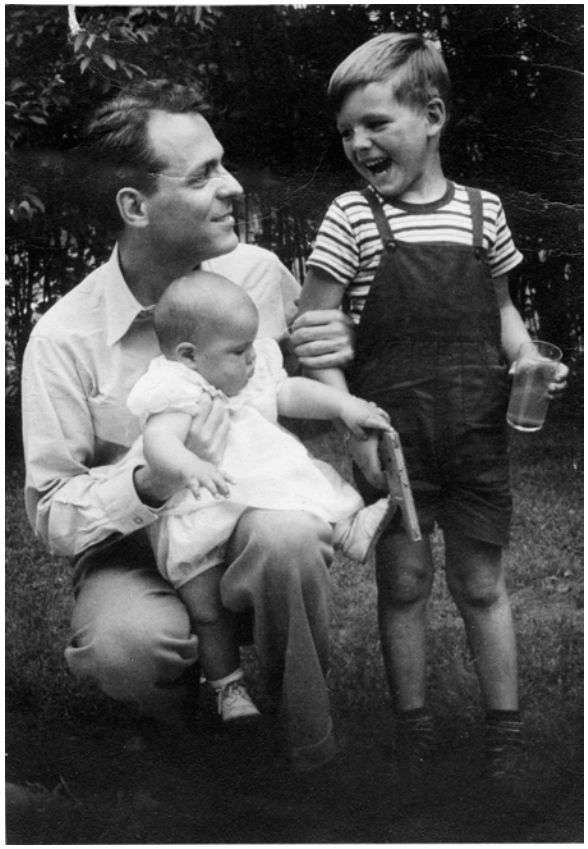


The 1943 Prudential 'Madonna'

In Lafayette Park, Washington DC, in 1944: in the carriage from which I descended to bite a little boy one day: with Mothie and Smokie...

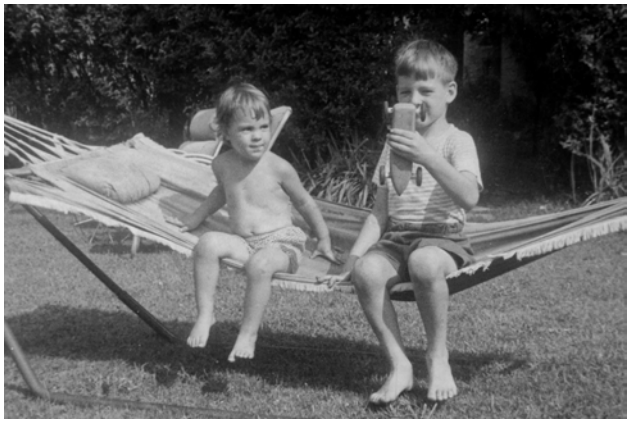
Just before Washington, DC, 1944.

Linda & Mom, spring 1947, Great Neck



<Spring, 1947

Linda and Me, 1948, Great Neck



Mom, 1949, Great Neck

Agency Vice-President

David Levy

The promotion of David Levy to vice-president in charge of talent and new programming for the radio and television department of Young & Rubicam, Inc., was announced by Sigurd S. Larmon, president. Mr. Levy has been with Young & Rubicam

<Gar, 1950 VP promotion at Y&R.

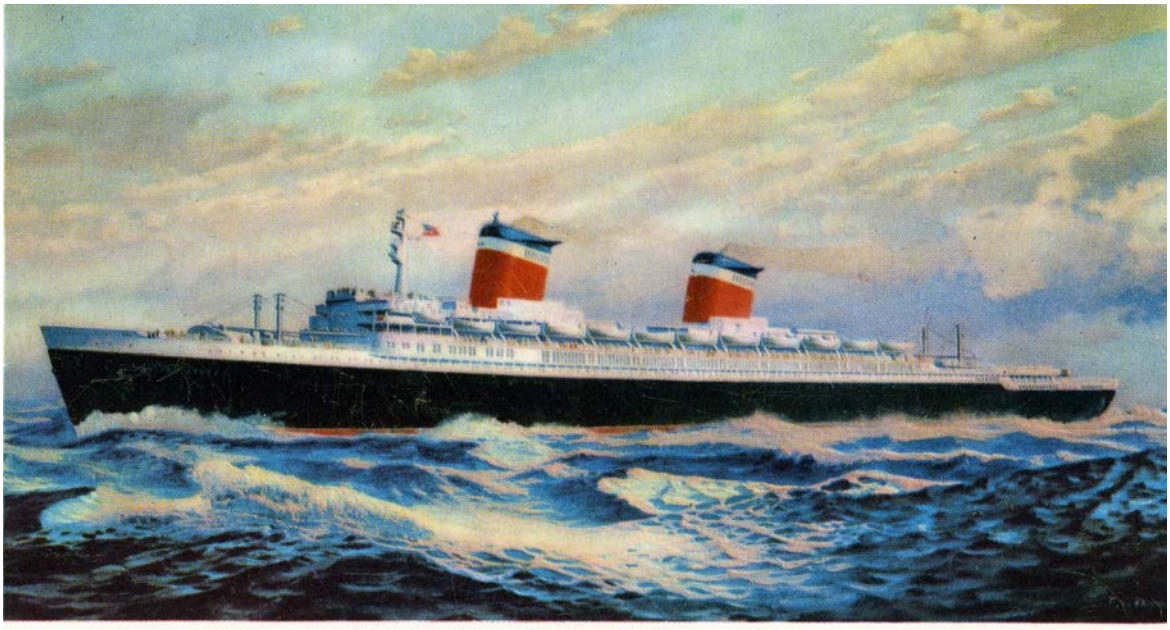
In Carl Schurz Park, Manhattan, 1950.

<Looking up E. 86th. St., from Carl Schurz Park: our building is the second on left.

With a friend, 1950, Manhattan.>

Right, Linda 1954, at 8; below, Linda 1950, at 4.

One of the cruise ships Mom and Gar began to sail in the early 1950s, to England, Italy, and the Caribbean.



S. S. UNITED STATES—WORLD'S FASTEST LINER

In Venice...

Venice...

In 1954 coming down to dinner while on a cruise...

<The Nieuw Amsterdam...

<The Queen Elizabeth...

< With his 1956 Chevy Bel Air, early 1956.